President's Letter

Alyshia Ravida, Chapter President

As the cold weather sets in and the holidays quickly approach, it's hard to believe how fast time is flying!

Last month, Christine Ifft, Brenda Fraas, and I had the pleasure of attending the 2024 AAHAM ANI in Fort Worth, Texas. I'd like to start by celebrating Brenda Fraas, who was honored with the 2024 Bill Spare Award. This prestigious award recognizes outstanding, long-term contributions to AAHAM, and Brenda is truly deserving. Her dedication to AAHAM, both at the national and chapter levels, is unparalleled. Most recently, she invested a significant amount of time this past spring and summer developing a certification preparation group, helping several members pass their exams. Thank you, Brenda, for your unwavering commitment to AAHAM!

The conference itself was a fantastic experience. The venue was excellent, the food was great, and there were numerous networking opportunities. The educational sessions were top-notch, and some of my personal favorites included:

- Payer Accountability and the Patient Perception – Elizabeth Staas, Vice President, HBCS – a Med-Metrix Company
- Payer Accountability and the Patient Perception – Susan Rohde, Director, Eide Bailly
- What to Expect in 2025 – Marcus Morrow, Esquire, Law Offices of Stephenson, Acquistio & Colman

I encourage you to mark your calendars for the 2025 AAHAM ANI, which will be held in Baltimore, MD, on October 20-22. This national event is invaluable, and after attending just once, you'll see why so many members return year after year!

Lastly, a big thank you to our generous sponsors – this event wouldn't be possible without your support. And thank you to all of our members for engaging in events and contributing to our chapter's success. We look forward to another great year together in 2025!

Merry Christmas, Happy Holidays, and a Happy New Year to all!

Alyshia Ravida
Chapter President, PA Three Rivers AAHAM
