AGENDA

- | | |
|-------------------|---|
| 8:00am – 9:00am | Registration Opens
Breakfast Available |
| 9:00am – 9:15am | President's Welcome & Chapter Updates
Christine Ifft, Pennsylvania Three Rivers AAHAM Chapter President |
| 9:15am – 10:15am | Generations Working Together
Matthew Belgie, UPMC Corporate
Different generations working alongside each other can help transfer skills and experience. Work teams that comprise multiple generations perform better than those that do not. |
| 10:15m – 10:30am | BREAK – Please visit the silent auction tables! |
| 10:30am – 11:15am | Hospital Shaming and What We Can Do
Bill Bollinger, Americollect
Health systems are regularly being “shamed” for all any and all collection efforts, even when it’s fair and justified. Bill will provide multiple examples of this happening, as well as, examples of recent legislation and pending legislation that is motivated by this trend. We will discuss how and why it’s critical that we change the narrative and ways that we can do this. |
| 11:15am – 12:00pm | Open Forum – Best Practices in Revenue Cycle Management |
| 12:00pm – 1:00pm | LUNCH – Please visit the silent auction tables! |

- 1:00pm – 1:45pm Understanding Third Party Contracting
Rich Nagy, Allegheny Health Network
More details coming soon!
- 1:45pm – 2:00pm BREAK – Last Call for Silent Auction!
- 2:00pm – 2:45pm The Changing No Surprises Act: Where it Stands and What Comes Next
Kathryn Beard, R1 RCM
While the federal No Surprises Act continues to positively impact the patient financial experience, healthcare facilities and providers are struggling to stay on top of the shifting regulatory landscape. Changing regulations, ongoing lawsuits, technology gaps, questions about enforcement, and needs for comprehensive guidance have created significant administrative burdens without achieving the financial stability the Act promised.
- 2:45pm – 3:00pm Swearing in of the 2024-2025 Chapter Officers
Chuck Hilton, Pennsylvania Three Rivers AAHAM Chapter Legal Counsel
- 3:00pm – 3:30pm Silent Auction & Wrap-Up
